The truth is that we cannot take anything with us from this world. The Rapture will prove that. Our departure from this world will be made much easier if we have not loved the things of this world. After all, “the world is passing away, and the lust of it”. (1 John 2:17) As evidence of the temporary nature of this world, “the grass withers, the flower fades”. (Isaiah 40:8) Why are we told not to love the world we live in? Because “the whole world lies under the sway of the wicked one” (1 John 5:19), and we are not to be “conformed” to it. (Romans 12:2)

Ask God to help you be attached to His Kingdom (Matthew 6:33), and detached from the things of this world.

1 John 2:15 “Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him.”
