What if an army knew the outcome of a battle before it even started? What would such knowledge do to the confidence of the soldiers? Before the army of Israel attacked Jericho, God told Joshua: “See! I have given Jericho into your hand.” (Joshua 6:2) The battle was over before it ever began; God had won the war for them.

Such is the case in the spiritual war that is currently playing out. Satan has been opposing the work of God since before Creation. Genesis 3:15 hinted at the final defeat of Satan, and the Resurrection of Jesus proved to be the harbinger of the final victory to come. But even before His death and Resurrection, Jesus said: “I have overcome the world.” Though the Resurrection was the turning point, there are still battles and skirmishes taking place between Satan’s forces and God’s people. However, if we stand firm, clothed in the armour of God, we can win every spiritual battle.

Do not fear Satan’s attacks. Be confident that in Jesus Christ you have overcome the world.

John 16:33 “These things I have spoken to you, that in Me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation; but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world.”
