It is easy to get frustrated when our plans don't work out. By now, we thought we would be further along in our career, have met the right person, or wouldn't be still dealing with a family problem. We get discouraged because things haven't turned out the way we planned. But God says His ways are not our ways, and His ways are far higher than our ways. As long as you are set on your way, expecting Him to work things out the way you want, you are not going to stay in peace, because it is not His plan. His plan is far better, far more rewarding, and far more fulfilling.

But here is the key: You are not always going to understand His plan. It may not make sense in the moment. There may be twists, turns, detours, and times when you feel like you are going the wrong way. This is when you need to surrender what you had in mind and trust His plan. Hold tightly to your desires and dreams, but hold loosely to how it is going to happen. Know that His way is always the best way.

Isaiah 55:8-9 "'For My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways My ways', declares the Lord. 'As the Heavens are higher than the Earth, so are My ways higher than your ways and My thoughts than your thoughts.'"
