For centuries, travellers crossed oceans and deserts using the North Star. Called Polaris, it remains fixed, providing a point of reference for those trying to find their way.

Perhaps God designed it that way to remind us of the stability Jesus Christ brings to our lives in every season and circumstance, no matter where we are. Every single thing in this Universe, both seen and unseen, is changeable and changing. But God says in Malachi 3:6: “I am the Lord, I do not change.” James 1:17 adds: “Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and comes down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow of turning.”

So if you are entering a new season of life, enter it with the One who is the same yesterday, today, and forever.

Hebrews 13:8 “Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever.”
