Sometimes it feels like we are surrounded by trouble, surrounded by evil, surrounded by sickness. A lot may be happening on the outside, things that could have you upset, worried, or afraid, but you should not let that get inside. What you may not realize is that there is something else surrounding you, a secret place where you can rest in the shadow of the Almighty.

Your part is to stay in that secret place, to stay close to God, and to keep Him first place in your life. The secret place is a place of peace, a place of trust. In that secret place, there is a calmness, a rest. You know the Most High God is watching over you. You know you are covered under His wings, and that He has you hidden in a safe place. When you are in that secret place, for calamity to get to you, it has to first go through Him. When Satan comes after you, he has to first deal with the Lord Almighty. As long as you are in the secret place, you have no reason to worry about what might happen.

Psalm 91:1,4 “He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty…. He shall cover you with His feathers, and under His wings you shall take refuge…”
