Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego were the three Hebrew teenagers who refused to bow to King Nebuchadnezzar's golden idol. Even though their lives were on the line, they refused to compromise and fit into a culture that didn't honour God. They could have conformed, played it safe, and done what everyone else was doing. But they knew this dangerous situation wasn't a surprise to God, and that He had the final say.

When you refuse to compromise what you know is right, when you stay on the high road and honour God with your life, you may get thrown into the fire. The good news is, God comes into the fire with you and makes you fireproof. He showed up in the furnace, and the teenagers walked out of the fire without a hair on their head singed or even the smell of smoke on them.

Every day you will be tempted to compromise your values. Don't shrink back in fear and give in to the pressure. Stand tall in faith and be a culture-changer. When you honour God, He will honour you.

Daniel 3:17-18 "If we are thrown into the blazing furnace, the God we serve is able to deliver us from it, and He will deliver us from Your Majesty's hand. But even if He does not, we want you to know, Your Majesty, that we will not serve your gods or worship the image of gold you have set up."
