Moses was taken from his home as a young child and raised as royalty by Pharaoh's daughter. It wasn't fair to be separated from his family, but he had an amazing upbringing. As Moses grew into a young man with all the privileges of the royal court, something didn't feel right. He was a Hebrew living as an Egyptian. He could feel God's calling on his life. Deep down, he knew he was supposed to deliver his people from the oppression of the Egyptians. At a crucial moment, he took his stand with the Hebrew slaves, but killing an Egyptian slave-driver forced him to flee into the wilderness for 40 years. All that could have seemed like a waste, but God was preparing Moses for the day when he would return to the royal court, with which he was completely familiar, and confront Pharaoh, the most powerful leader of that day.

So no matter what you go through, God is not going to waste it. If you keep the right attitude through seasons of struggle, you will come out prepared, and step into the fullness of what God has in store.

Hebrews 11:24-25 "By faith, Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be known as the son of Pharaoh's daughter. He chose to be mistreated along with the people of God rather than to enjoy the fleeting pleasures of sin."
