

In the Garden of Eden, Adam and Eve were living confidently and securely with God. They knew they had His blessing and favour. But one day the enemy deceived them into eating the forbidden fruit, and immediately they were afraid. They ran and hid. When God called out to Adam, "Where are you?" Adam said, "We are hiding because we are naked." God asked, "Who told you that you were naked?"

God is asking us today, "Who told you that you are not good enough, that you are just average, that you can't accomplish your hopes and dreams?" Those negative thoughts didn't come from our God. Those lies from the enemy open the door to fear, insecurity, and shame. They focus on what we are not, on the mistakes we have made, on what other people have said about us. Don't let the enemy deceive you. You are a child of the Most High God. You are not average or mediocre; you are royalty. Keep your crown on.

2 Corinthians 11:3 "...But I am afraid that just as Eve was deceived by the Serpent's cunning, your minds may somehow be led astray from your sincere and pure devotion to Christ..."
