

To “be steadfast and immovable” is a powerful choice you need to make. You need to boldly declare: “I am not going to be moved by my circumstances. I am not going to let what others say about me steal my peace, joy and hope. I am not going to live worried about my finances. I am going to do my best and trust God to do what I can’t do. I have the grace from God to handle anything that comes my way.”

As long as you are allowing circumstances to determine your peace, joy and hope, your life is going to be like a rollercoaster ride that is based on what goes your way. That is surface living. God is saying, “You need to go down deeper in your faith.” Rather than try to use your faith to control your circumstances, use your faith to control yourself in the midst of those trying circumstances. When you stay in peace, that is a place of power. You know that no weapon formed against you will prosper.

1 Corinthians 15:58 “...Be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labour is not in vain in the Lord...”
