Are you worrying your prayers, filling your prayers with doubts and complaint sessions to God, or are you praying with boldness, with faith, and with thanksgiving? To ask boldly, believingly, without second thoughts, pray what God has promised you. Get in agreement with what He has spoken over your life. When the obstacle seems too big, come against it "in the name of the Lord God of Israel", as David did when he faced Goliath. Magnify your God rather than your problem.

If you want faith to rise in your heart, here is how to start a bold prayer: "Father, thank You that You are the Great I AM, the Creator of the Universe. Nothing and no-one can stand against You. You are Jehovah Jireh, the Lord my Provider. You are El Shaddai, the God of more than enough. You parted the Red Sea. You healed the sick and raised the dead. You are the way maker, the miracle worker, the promise keeper. You are the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. You have the final say. What You have purposed for my life will come to pass. I declare it in Jesus' mighty name. Amen." That is what makes you strong.

James 1:6-8 "Ask boldly, believingly, without a second thought. People who "worry their prayers" are like wind-whipped waves. Don't think you are going to get anything from the Master that way, adrift at sea, keeping all your options open."
