On two occasions in the book of Revelation, the apostle John became so confused by the awe and majesty of an angel, that he fell at his feet in worship. (Revelation 19:9-10; 22:8-9) In both cases the angels refused to accept his worship, telling him to worship only God. Elsewhere in Revelation we have powerful scenes of the Heavenly host worshipping the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, and leading others in worship and praise.

Worshipping God is a theological and psychological necessity for us. We are made to worship and praise the Creator, and we join the angels in doing so. We also join them in serving the Lord. How amazing to consider the angel's words to John - I am your fellow servant.

We are obviously different from angels in many ways, but we also have some things in common with them. As you worship and serve God each day, you are doing so alongside the host of Heaven!

Revelation 19:10 "I fell at his feet to worship him. But he said to me: 'See that you do not do that! I am your fellow servant, and of your brethren who have the testimony of Jesus. Worship God!'"
