

In today's Scripture God was saying to His people, who had been taken into captivity in Babylon, that when you thank Him even though you don't see anything good happening, when you offer up the sacrifice of praise, God is going to reverse negative situations and restore what's been stolen by the enemy.

When you don't see how it can work out, but you go through the day saying, "Father, thank You that the answer is on the way; thank You that this problem is turning around", get ready because God is going to reverse and restore. He is going to reverse finances that are down, reverse a bad health report, reverse a legal matter, and He is even going to restore what should have been yours. He is going to restore years that you have lost because somebody wronged you. He is going to restore a relationship that is in trouble, and restore health back to your body. It's going to happen because of your praise, so turn it up!
