

Many believers spend a lot of time talking about and in their minds reliving their past mistakes, hurts and injustices. It's a problem, because you are remembering the wrong things. Nowhere in the Scripture are we told to remember our defeats, failures, or bad breaks. It's time to stop thinking and talking about it, because all that it's doing is depressing and discouraging you.

David says in Psalm 34, "Let all who are discouraged take heart." He goes on to tell us how to do it - "Come, let's talk about God's greatness. I prayed and the Lord answered me." He was saying, "When you are discouraged, when you don't see a way out, talk about God's greatness and not about your problems, not about what didn't work out. Talk about your answered prayers, the times God healed you, promoted you, stopped the accidents, and turned the problems around." When you rather remember your victories, you will move forward in faith.

1 Chronicles 29:11 "...Yours, O LORD, is the greatness, the power, the glory, the victory, and the majesty. Everything in the Heavens and on Earth is yours, O LORD, and this is your Kingdom. We adore You as the One who is over all things..."
