

One day a large crowd of people celebrated Jesus' arrival in Jerusalem, shouting, "Hosanna! Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!" A few days later, those same people were shouting, "Crucify Him!" When Jesus went to trial and needed His closest friends to support Him, most of His disciples had fled, one had betrayed Him, and Peter denied Him.

If you don't know who you are without other people, then if they leave, you will be lost. Your identity will have been caught up in who they made you to be. Then you will have to try to find somebody else to tell you who you are. Don't put your identity, your value into somebody else's hands. People are very fickle, and you don't need their approval or for them to tell you who you are. Your value comes from your Creator. Let Him tell you who you are. You have a unique, pre-ordained destiny and identity in Christ. Get your value, your self-worth and your approval from Him. Always remember that God defines you, not people!

Proverbs 29:25 "...The fear of human opinion disables; trusting in God protects you from that..."
