

After the Israelites had been in slavery in Egypt for 430 years, God said, "I have seen the affliction of My people. I've heard their cries. I am coming down to deliver them." God was saying, "Enough is enough." It was a great miracle for the Israelites to be set free, but God also ensured that they wouldn't leave empty-handed. On their way out, the Israelites asked the Egyptians for their gold, silver, and jewelry. God gave them favour, and as a result the Egyptians willingly gave it to the Israelites.

You may have been in an unfair or difficult situation for a long time, but God is saying, "I am going to do something about it. Things are about to change in your favour. Payback is coming, healing is coming, promotion is coming, vindication is coming, new relationships are coming. You are not going to come out empty-handed. You are going to come out better than you were, promoted, stronger, healthier, and at a new level."

Exodus 3:21 "...And I will make the Egyptians favourably disposed toward this people, so that when you leave you will not go empty-handed..."
