

Today people run after two things: miraculous signs and wonders, and knowledge. It was no different in Bible times. The apostle Paul acknowledged that “Jews request a sign, and Greeks seek after wisdom.” (1 Corinthians 1:22) So when Paul preached Christ crucified as God’s solution to them, the message was “to the Jews a stumbling block and to the Greeks foolishness”. (1 Corinthians 1:23) They didn’t understand how getting a revelation of Jesus and His death could give them the miracles they needed, or the wisdom they wanted.

Today we just need to run after Jesus, to pursue Him, because He is “the power of God and the wisdom of God”. The more we know Christ and Christ crucified, the more we will have the power and wisdom of God. Christ is both the power and wisdom of God to us. As the power of God, He removes obstacles in our paths, and as the wisdom of God, He continually directs our paths!

1 Corinthians 1:24 “....to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God.”
