

As believers, what we must do to “work the works of God”? In the Gospel of John, we find Jesus being asked the same question by the multitude who had been awed by His miracles - “What shall we do, that we may work the works of God?” The people had seen Jesus healing the sick, and feeding 5 000 men with only five loaves and two fish.

Notice how Jesus answered them: “This is the work of God, that you believe in Him whom He sent.” The greatest doing is believing - believing in Jesus the sent One, who has done it all for you at the Cross! If you are asking, “What must I do to receive my healing?”, the answer is this: Believe in Jesus, who “Himself took our infirmities and bore our sicknesses.” (Matthew 8:17) When the jailer asked Paul and Silas, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved?”, they said, “Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved, you and your household.” (Acts 16:30-31)

The greatest miracle in your life happens not by you working and trying to save yourself, but by you simply believing in Jesus who died to save you from eternal damnation and to give you eternal life. The lesser miracles of healing or financial breakthrough are no different. There is nothing left for you to do, but everything for you to believe, because Jesus has done it all for you!

John 6:28-29 “...What shall we do, that we may work the works of God?” Jesus answered and said to them, “This is the work of God, that you believe in Him whom He sent.””
