

In Luke 9, when Jesus fed the 5 000, they only counted the men. They didn't count the children or the women, who were regarded as second class, less than, back then. Yet it was a small boy, the least likely among the crowd, who brought the lunch that fed the crowd. God uses people that other people don't count.

Could it be that you are not reaching your highest potential because you feel like you are not counted, you are lacking in some area, now you are not expecting anything good, not pursuing your dreams? No, you need to have a new perspective. You are a prime candidate for God to show out in your life. You may feel weak, but God wants to show Himself strong on your behalf. You may feel like the least likely, but God wants to do something so amazing in your life that it will astound the people around you. Know that you have been counted; you have been qualified. What God speaks over your life will come to pass.

1 Corinthians 1:27 "Isn't it obvious that God deliberately chose men and women that the culture overlooks and exploits and abuses, chose these 'nobodies' to expose the hollow pretensions of the 'somebodies'?..."
