

When God told Moses to go and tell Pharaoh, "Let My people go", Moses said, "God, I can't do that. I don't speak well. I stutter." Moses was saying, "God, I don't have what it takes. You didn't give me that gift. I'm afraid." He kept making excuse after excuse until the Scripture says, "God became angry with Moses". He was angry because Moses saw his gift as not enough.

Likewise He is displeased when we are not using what He has given us, when we are making excuses, discounting our gifts and talents. When God said to Moses, "Who made your tongue?", He was saying, "Moses, I created the entire Universe. You didn't get shortchanged. You are not lacking anything." God would not ask you to do something if He hadn't already equipped you with what you need. So, take the talent you have and develop it. If you will use what you have, God will give you more.

Exodus 4:11 "...Then the LORD asked Moses, "Who makes a person's mouth? ... Is it not I the LORD?""
