

Today's Scripture tells us to resist the enemy. To resist means to not agree with what he is telling you, but rather to believe what God says about you. When you hear him whisper in your ear, "You will never amount to anything. You have made too many mistakes", the way you resist it is to answer, "No, Satan, you are wrong! God's grace and mercy is bigger than any mistake. My best days are still ahead of me." Don't assist the enemy; resist him. When he tells you, "You don't deserve to be blessed. Look at what you have done", resist him by declaring, "I am the righteousness of God in Christ Jesus. I am forgiven. I am redeemed." When the enemy says, "You have blown it. You knew better, and now you are guilty", tell him, "There is no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. I asked God for forgiveness, and He not only forgave me, but He doesn't remember it. I am going to live guilt-free, confidently, securely, holy, blamelessly, righteously, and honourably. I declare it in Jesus' name, amen."

James 4:7 "So give yourselves humbly to God. Resist Satan and he will flee from you."
