

Words have creative power. They can be very helpful like electricity. Used the right way, electricity powers all kinds of good things. However, electricity used the wrong way can harm or even kill you. It's the same way with our words. Whether we speak positive or negative words, we will reap what we sow. If you are always speaking words of defeat and failure, you are going to live in a very miserable world. Use your words to change your negative situations and fill them with life.

The Scripture clearly tells us to speak to our 'mountains'. Maybe your mountain is a sickness, a college debt, or a floundering business. Whatever your mountain is, speak to that obstacle. The Scripture says, "Let the weak say, "I am strong!" Start calling yourself healed, happy, whole, blessed, and prosperous. God is a miracle-working God. Stop talking to God about how big your mountains are, and start talking to your mountains about how big your God is!

Proverbs 18:21 "The tongue has the power of life and death."