

When Mary Magdalene and two other women went to Jesus' tomb after His death, an angel said to them, "He is not here. He has risen! He is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see Him." Notice that the angel said, "He is not here. He is there." The angel was saying, in effect, "I know you are hurting, but don't stay here. Something better is waiting for you there."

In other words, "here" is the disappointment, the betrayal, the dream etc. that didn't work out. If you stay "here", you will be discouraged. You need to go "there". Sometimes the reason God doesn't comfort us in the "here", is because He doesn't want us to stay where we are. "There" is where God is waiting for you. "There" is where the breakthrough and blessing is. The "here" is simply a season. God has already gone ahead and lined up the next level. Move forward into "there".

Mark 16:6-7 "Don't be alarmed", he said. "You are looking for Jesus the Nazarene, who was crucified. He has risen! He is not here. See the place where they laid him. But go, tell his disciples and Peter, "He is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see him, just as he told you.""
