

Samson was given supernatural strength to deliver God's people from their enemies and couldn't be defeated, but he let his moral guard down and ended up losing his strength, was blinded, and made a slave. It was his fault, but God never gives up on us. One day while Samson was being ridiculed by his captors, he prayed for strength "just one more time", and God gave Samson the strength to push the middle pillars of the temple, collapsing the building, and killing more enemies in his death than he had during his entire lifetime.

You have made mistakes, but that is not how your story ends. You have not yet seen your greatest victories. Know that God has a one more time coming your way. He has something bigger and more rewarding in store than you have ever imagined.

Judges 16:28 "Then Samson prayed to the LORD, "Sovereign LORD, remember me again. O God, please strengthen me just one more time. With one blow let me pay back the Philistines for the loss of my two eyes.""
