

When God breathed His life into you, He put a crown of glory and honour on your head. This crown represents your authority. It represents God's blessing and favour on your life. It's a reminder that you are royalty. When you are wearing your crown, you will have a strong sense of expectation, thinking, "I have a right to be blessed and live in victory, because I'm wearing a crown of honour put there by my Creator."

Jesus said, "Hold on to what you have, so that no-one will take your crown." Throughout life, there will always be someone or something trying to take your crown. People will talk about you, trying to discredit you, push you down and hold you back. What they are really doing is trying to take your crown. Don't let them have it. Nobody can take your crown. You need to let go of what was said or done to you in the past, rather than let go of your crown.

Psalm 8:5 "You have made them a little lower than the angels and crowned them with glory and honour."
