

Do you regard people or your job as your source? Yes, God uses people, jobs etc., but they are not the true Source. They are simply resources that the Source uses. If you are seeing anything or anyone other than God as your true source, when something happens to that something or someone, you will think: "What am I going to do? My source has been cut off." No, the Source is just fine. God is still on the throne, and everything belongs to Him and comes from Him.

That's why you don't need to try and obtain favour from people at work, or compromise to get a good break. You are not at the mercy of the economy, or who likes you, or what your employer does. People are not your provider; God is your Provider, and as all resources belong to Him, He can use them as He deems fit.

James 1:17 "Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the Heavenly lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow due to change."
