

In Luke 1, when an angel told Zechariah that his wife, Elizabeth, was going to have a baby, he said: "How can I be sure of this? We are too old now." The angel said: "It's going to happen, but now you will be silent and not able to speak until the day this happens." That's how powerful words are. God knew that if Zechariah went around speaking words of defeat, such as "This isn't possible", that would stop the promise.

God has spoken promises to your soul and spirit that may seem impossible. Don't talk yourself out of the breakthrough, or even a miracle. Your words have creative power. When you speak something out, you are giving it the right to come to pass. It's one thing to believe you are healed, but when you say "I am healed", that releases the healing. It's not enough to just believe you have favour or that you are going to fulfill your dreams. Nothing happens until you speak. Get in agreement with God. Dare to declare what He has put in your soul and spirit.

Psalm 107:2 "Let the redeemed of the LORD say so, whom He has redeemed from the hand of the enemy."