

Sometimes we look at the painful times in our lives when we are hurting, lonely, disappointed etc, and think they cannot be a part of God's Plan. You need to trust that even then, God doesn't make any mistakes. He has already designed your life down to the smallest detail. God didn't promise that we wouldn't experience any pain, suffering, or disappointment, but He did promise that it would all work out for our good.

The key is what you do in your times of pain. Difficulties, heartache and suffering don't leave you the same. Afterwards you are different. You can come out bitter, or you can come out better. You can come out with a chip on your shoulder, or you can come out with a greater trust in God. So, don't just go through it; grow through it.

Isaiah 46:10 "I make known the end from the beginning, from ancient times, and what is still to come. I say, "My purpose will stand, and I will do all that I please.""
