

After 13 years of being imprisoned in Egypt for a crime he didn't commit, there was nothing in Joseph's circumstances that looked as if he would ever accomplish his dream of ruling a nation. However, one day Joseph was called before Pharaoh to interpret Pharaoh's dream, and Pharaoh was so impressed that he made Joseph the Prime Minister of Egypt. On the previous day, if you had told Joseph this would happen, he would have said, "Hardly. Don't you see these bars?"

You may be in an unfair situation that seems as though it's never going to turn around. Remember, you don't need everyone to be for you; you just need the right people to be for you. God has already lined up people in positions of influence who will open doors you couldn't open, and bring you opportunities and promotion that you didn't see coming. As was true for Joseph, you don't have to find them, they will find you. It is the hand of God in your life.

Genesis 41:44 "Pharaoh declared to Joseph, "I, the king of Egypt, swear that you shall have complete charge over all the land of Egypt.""
