

The woman who entered the synagogue where Jesus was had been bent over for eighteen years. She had been bound by the enemy for so long that she in all likelihood thought it was permanent. When Jesus called her a daughter of Abraham, it meant she was a part of the covenant that God made with Abraham. She wasn't just any woman. She had rights and privileges because she was in the family line of Abraham.

As with her, you are not just anyone. You are a son or daughter of the Most High God. You have rights because of Who you belong to. You weren't created to be bound by sickness, poverty, an addiction, or any other limitation. So get ready, because the chain-breaker is about to step in. If Jesus were here today, He would look at you and say: "You are loosed from what's holding you back. Your day of freedom has come. The chain is coming off. You are being released into healing, released into favour, released into new levels."

Luke 13:16 ""So ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan has bound - think of it - for eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath?""
