

In the Old Testament, the Israelites had several different national feasts, such as the Passover, that they were to observe at set times each year. The times had been ordained by God, and couldn't be changed. These were special times that God had already established to show His people favour.

Just as it was with them, there are appointed times God has already ordained to show out His favour in your life. After years of things being routine, you will come into set times of growth and increase. God will thrust you from the background to the foreground, accelerate your hopes and dreams, and make things happen faster than you expect. Problems will unexpectedly turn around, even though it looks impossible. So get ready, because the Creator of the Universe is about to bless your life in a new way. His power of favour is greater than any unGodly force that is trying to come against you. The appointed times in your life have already been established.

Habakkuk 2:3 "For still the vision awaits its appointed time; it hastens to the end - it will not lie. If it seems slow, wait for it; it will surely come; it will not delay."
