

Many people get labelled as average or less than, and then they adapt to that environment and let their mind become conditioned to thinking they have reached their limit. Becoming a barrier-breaker starts in your thinking. Nothing will change until you make up your mind that you are not going to accept mediocrity. Take the limitations off yourself. You have so much potential that Satan would love to keep from ever coming out. He will use adversity, negative comments, people, and circumstances to try to keep you from believing that you can rise to the next level.

You were not created to live contained, so recondition your mind. Be bold and get rid of the thoughts that are holding you back. You may not see how you can do it in your own ability, but you are not on your own. You have the most powerful force in the Universe on your side. God created you to rise ever higher!

Ephesians 1:18 "I pray that your hearts will be flooded with light so that you can understand the confident hope He has given to those He called - His holy people who are His rich and glorious inheritance."
