

What you are believing for, the promises you are standing on, the hopes and dreams you have been praying about - they are already en route. The healing is coming, the promotion is coming, and the right people are coming. You may not see any signs of it yet; everything looks the same. What you cannot see is that behind the scenes, God is moving the wrong people out of the way, and pushing back the forces of darkness. He is arranging things in your favour, and lining up the breaks and breakthroughs you need. He is called the author and the finisher of our faith, and is going to finish what He started in your life.

You may have big challenges, but you serve a mighty God. Your enemies may be powerful, but your God is all-powerful. That hope or dream may look impossible, but God can do the impossible. Even when you don't think you have the connections, the resources, the ability or the talent, God is for you, and He is saying: "Trust me completely. Favour is on the way."

Hebrews 12:2 "Looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before Him endured the Cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God."
