

Do you know that God loves you so much that at times He will hide you? He will cause you to be overlooked. He will cause a promotion to go to your co-worker. You can be talented and hidden, anointed and hidden, and have great ideas and hidden. If you don't understand that God is hiding you, you will be frustrated and try to make things happen on your own. Before you see acclaim, you will go through a season of obscurity. You need to pass the test when you are being hidden.

Moses was hidden for forty years in the desert. David was hidden in the shepherds' fields after he was anointed the next king. Elijah was hidden for three and half years with a widow and her son in Zarephath. It's part of the process. When you are faithful in obscurity, when you do the right thing even when you don't understand it, then you are passing the test. You are setting yourself on a launching pad for God to take you further than you ever hoped or dreamed.

Isaiah 49:2 "He made my mouth like a sharp sword; in the shadow of His hand He hid me; He made me a polished arrow; in His quiver He hid me away."
