

When troubles come our way, it is easy to get discouraged and frustrated, but God wouldn't allow it if it weren't going to work to your advantage. The reason you have big challenges is that you have a big pre-ordained destiny in Christ. Ordinary people have ordinary problems; average people have average challenges. You are not ordinary or average. You are a child of the Most High God. The Creator of the Universe breathed His life into you, and crowned you with His favour. You are not ordinary or average; you are extraordinary. Therefore, don't be surprised if you face extraordinary challenges.

God knows what He is doing. You may not like the trouble, it may not be fair, and you are uncomfortable, but that trouble is transportation. Keep believing, keep praying, keep honouring and praising God, and then trouble will take you to the next level of your pre-ordained destiny in Christ. It is progressively preparing you and refining you. Embrace it!

Psalm 46:1 "God is our refuge and strength; a very present help in trouble."
