

Angels are always surrounding you and protecting you, because God has given them charge over you to protect you. When you choose to make Him your habitation, He charges His angels to watch over you and to surround you with His divine protection.

Psalm 91:11-12 was quoted by Satan when he tried to tempt our Lord Jesus. He brought our Lord to the pinnacle of the temple and said to Him: "If You are the Son of God, throw Yourself down. For it is written: "He shall give His angels charge over you" and: "In their hands they shall bear you up, lest you dash your foot against a stone."" To this Jesus replied: "It is written again, "You shall not tempt the Lord your God."" (Matthew 4:5-7)

The temptation of our Lord Jesus in the wilderness is the only instance in the Bible where Satan is recorded quoting Scripture. However, Satan deliberately misquoted verse 11. He misquotes the Bible because he is the father of lies. Verse 11 actually reads: "For He shall give His angels charge over you, to keep you in all your ways." So why did Satan leave out the words "to keep you in all your ways"? The answer is found in Proverbs 3:6-7, which says: "In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths. Do not be wise in your own eyes; fear the LORD and depart from evil." You see, Satan didn't want to say the words "to keep you in all your ways", because that would be tantamount to reminding believers of Proverbs 3:6-7, namely to acknowledge God in all their ways. So he conveniently left out that whole portion. But praise the Lord, we know that this is what the Lord has promised: "For He shall give His angels charge over you, to keep you in all your ways". Your part is to simply acknowledge Him in all your ways, and He shall direct your paths, protecting you along the way!

Psalm 91:11-12 "For He will command His angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways; they will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone."
