

The 7 core needs of Mankind

1. Religion (it is actually Spirituality)
2. Information
3. Healthcare
4. Education
5. Money
6. Food
7. Protection

A saviour (Yashua [Christ] is the ultimate example) provides all of the above, whereas a dictator (eg Stalin, Hitler and soon the Anti-Christ [anti means counterfeit / substitute, not against]) controls the distribution / dissemination thereof. During the (Great) Tribulation this will become manifest when all people will be faced with an eternally significant choice (remember it's all about free will), namely as a result of the supposed 'benefit' of a cashless society, take Satan's mark ("666", which will in all likelihood be the barcode on a chip inserted just below the surface of the skin) on their wrist or forehead (depending on their rank in Satan's hierarchy), or otherwise be faced with the grim reality of not being able to buy food, electricity, petrol etc for themselves and their family. God will spare His own, His true sons and daughters, this dreadful torment by way of the Rapture, which occurs before the Tribulation starts.
