

Have you encountered believers who have little, yet even that little is taken away from them? On the other hand, there are those believers who already have much, yet they receive even more.

Jesus said, "To everyone who has, more will be given. From him who does not have, even what he has will be taken away." Notice that Jesus doesn't go on to say what it is we have. He simply says, "But to everyone who has." Jesus is talking about a firm belief in God's Word that gives one the courage to say, "I have it!" If you say that you have it, you have it, and more will be given to you. But if you say that you don't have it, when you actually do, because God has freely given us all things (Romans 8:32), then even what you have will be taken away - not by God, but by Satan! Satan does not want you to walk in God's blessings. So when you say that you don't have it, he can rob you of your blessings because he has your agreement!

When you need something, God says that you are to ask of Him. When you ask, believe that you receive it. (Mark 11:24) Say you already have it, even if you don't see it in the physical realm yet, and one day, you will see it! God is not saying, "Pretend that you see it, and if you pretend long enough, you will have it." No! God is telling us to call forth those things which don't exist as though they do. (Romans 4:17) So say you have it today and every day, and believe that with all your soul and spirit!

Matthew 25:29 "For to everyone who has, more will be given, and he will have abundance; but from him who does not have, even what he has will be taken away."
