

It is easy to go through life thinking you are lacking in some area: "If I had a better personality, if I were more confident, if I were more attractive, I could reach my dreams." But as long as you think you are at a disadvantage, that you got shortchanged, that you are not up to par, it will keep you from rising higher. It is going to limit your life. That is a deficit mentality.

Too often you look around at others and compare, but God is saying: "You don't need what they have. If you needed it, I would have given it to you. Look inside. You already have everything you need. As long as you trust in Me, you will never lack any good thing." You are not at a deficit. You are good enough, you are talented enough, you are smart enough, and you are attractive enough. You have been fearfully and wonderfully made. You need to see yourself as a no-lack person.

Psalm 34:10 "...those who trust in the LORD will lack no good thing."
