

Sometimes people will try to convince you that you are not supposed to be blessed. If anyone tries to convince you that you are supposed to be poor to show that you are truly humble, know that it is a lie from the pit of Hell. One of the names of God is "El Shaddai", which is usually translated "God Almighty", and means "more than enough". If God wanted you to just scrape by in life, why would His name be "More Than Enough"? Don't let anyone talk you out of the overflow that God has in store for you.

God wants you to have an abundance, even superabundance, so that you can be a blessing to others. You will have so much joy that you bring joy wherever you go. You will have so many resources that you can help those around you. You are going to overflow with creativity, with talent, with ideas. Overflow with great people in your life. Overflow with influence, with respect, with promotion. You may not have seen it yet, but God is about to do new things. Overflow is coming.

Genesis 28:3 "May God Almighty bless you and make you fruitful and increase your numbers until you become a community of peoples."
