

Perhaps you are at a place where you feel like you cannot muster any more faith, let alone “not waver at the promise of God” like Abraham. (Romans 4:20) Maybe you are thinking: “I have tried and tried to believe for so long. I have no more faith to carry on.”

Today’s Scripture verse shows how there was faith involved when Sarah conceived and bore a child. How did Sarah receive her miracle after so long and when it seemed impossible in the natural? She “judged Him faithful who had promised”. It seems so simple, but therein lay her miracle. The faith walk isn’t difficult. It is easy and effortless. When your faith runs out, judge God faithful. When you do not know how to have faith anymore, reckon on His faithfulness. Remember that He is faithful. Lean on His faithfulness. Don’t give up because you think you don’t have enough faith. Once God gives you a promise, it is not for you to muster faith. It is for you to rest in the One who promised, knowing that He is faithful. There is a beautiful verse that will steady you in the fight of faith when it seems like your answers are not forthcoming: “If we are faithless, He remains faithful; He cannot deny Himself.” (2 Timothy 2:13) Even when you are faithless, He remains faithful.

At the Cross, as Jesus carried all our sins, God the Father had to turn away from His Son, and Jesus cried out: “My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?” (Matthew 27:46) He paid the ultimate price for you and me to have God’s constant presence, and because of that, God will never leave you nor forsake you. (Hebrews 13:5) He will never relax His hold on you. When you feel faithless, know that you don’t have to try to hold onto Him - He is the One holding onto you. The Bible says the Lord your God holds your right hand, saying to you: “Fear not, I will help you.” (Isaiah 41:13)

Hebrews 11:11 “By faith even Sarah, who was past childbearing age, was enabled to bear children because she considered Him faithful who had made the promise.”
