

Perhaps some of the dreams you have had didn't work out, some of the promises you were believing for haven't come to pass, and the fire has gone out in your life. However, underneath the ashes of disappointment, under the wrongs that people have done to you, and under the mistakes you have made, an ember is still alive. You may not be able to see that it is still burning, but all you need to do is stir it up. Stir up your passion, your dreams, your creativity, and your gifts and talents.

In today's Scripture verse, the prophet Jeremiah was extremely discouraged, but deep down he realized that God's promise was still burning. You may have been through things that knocked you down, but there are dreams shut up in you like embers - all they need is to be stirred up. So start dreaming again, start looking for new opportunities, start declaring God's favour, and start praying bold prayers. What God put in you didn't go out.

Jeremiah 20:9 "...His word is in my heart like a fire, a fire shut up in my bones. I am weary of holding it in; indeed, I cannot."
