

When you face adversity, is your typical prayer: "God, please get me out of this!"? There is nothing wrong with that prayer, but before you get out, you need to invite God in. Sometimes the miracle is in what God wants to do in the situation. Start praying: "God, come into this hospital room, come into this troubled relationship, come into this financial challenge etc." More powerful than God bringing you out, is when He comes in and gives you favour despite the enemy trying to push you down. He comes in and gives you strength you cannot explain. He comes in and gives you the grace to outlast the adversity.

In today's Scripture verse, God says that although adversities are going to come, He will be with you in them. Are you trying to get out of the fire God is going to take you through? Are you fighting the fire alone, wondering why it is happening? Everything will change if you start inviting God in. He promised He will be with you; He is just waiting for your invitation.

Isaiah 43:2 "When you go through deep waters, I will be with you. When you go through rivers of difficulty, you will not drown. When you walk through the fire of oppression, you will not be burned up; the flames will not consume you."
