

Too many believers are wishy-washy. They pursue their dreams as long as they are getting good breaks. Their commitment to friends and family or in the workplace is based on things going their way. When things get difficult, when it is taking longer than they thought, when they are not getting credit, they get discouraged and slack off. You cannot give up because it is difficult, or you are lonely, or you are being overlooked. You need to be steadfast. When you stay committed, God will make things happen that you could not possibly make happen yourself.

Committed people outlast the difficulty. Committed people stick with a marriage even though they have the right to walk away. Committed people go the extra mile and do more than they need to. Committed people show up at church even when they don't feel like it. Is there some area you are tempted to give up in, take the easy way out, slack off? God is saying: "Stay committed. Stay determined. Stay faithful." Committed people see their hopes and dreams come to pass, and reach the fullness of their pre-ordained destiny in Christ.

1 Corinthians 15:58 "Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labour is not in vain in the Lord."
