

Learning to see what God sees is a powerful key in right believing. It involves replacing your wrong beliefs with right beliefs, based on God's Word.

When Jesus saw the man with the withered hand, He didn't just see the withered hand, He saw that there was more than enough grace for that hand to be made completely whole. Jesus said to the man: "Stretch out your hand!" The man did as told, and his hand was completely restored and made as whole as his other hand. (Mark 3:1-5) You don't say "stretch out your hand" to someone whose hand is obviously shrivelled and disabled, unless you see differently. Jesus sees differently from you and me. That is why we need to go back to God's Word and learn to see what He sees. When Jesus sees a disease, a lack, or someone trapped in fear, guilt, addiction, and sin, He doesn't just see the problem. He sees God's healing, grace, and power superabounding in that area of weakness.

You too can change what you believe by seeing beyond what your natural eyes see. Press in to see what God sees. In your very area of lack, struggle, or challenge, see His superabounding grace all around your current situation. Jesus says to you today: "My grace is sufficient for you, for My strength is made perfect in weakness." (2 Corinthians 12:9) Give all your weaknesses, failings, and mistakes to the Lord Jesus and see Him transform your weaknesses into strengths. What you believe is powerful, so are you going by what you see or what God sees? You may not be able to stop negative thoughts from passing through your mind, or unhealthy emotions such as fear gripping your heart, but you can definitely anchor your thoughts and emotions on the unshakeable Word of God. You can certainly ensure that you believe right regarding what God says about you in His Word, which contains His precious promises to you. The more you learn and believe right about His love and what His Word says about your situation and your life, the more your thoughts will line up with His thoughts about you. You will begin to develop thoughts of peace and not of evil, thoughts of hope and a bright future (Jeremiah 29:11), and you will be transformed!

Romans 12:2 "Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind."
