

In today's Scripture verse, God put such an emphasis on His faithfulness because He knew how easy it is to give up on your hopes and dreams, and to let your circumstances and how long it has been taking, to talk you out of His best. You may be facing a situation that looks impossible. The odds are against you, and you have had some setbacks. Be encouraged, knowing that it is coming together. God is not going to fail you. The breakthrough is already in your future. Perhaps you think you can never get out of debt, never live in a nice house, never be successful in your career. You have gone as far as your education allows. No! Don't listen to Satan's lies. It is coming together. Promotion, abundance, and new levels are headed your way.

When you go through each day with this expectancy, knowing and trusting that God is indeed working behind the scenes bringing it together, that is what allows God to do great things. If you stay in faith, at the right time you will see it come together.

Hebrews 13:5 "For God has said: "I will never, never fail you nor forsake you.""
