

Perhaps you know God has forgiven you from past mistakes and failures, but you still have a sense of unworthiness as though you don't deserve it. That shame has held you back long enough. Know that the strongholds have been broken. Burdens have been lifted. God is saying: "Shame off you!" Now you need to get in agreement with Him. Stop listening to Satan's accusing voice. Stop believing his lies that you have to settle for second best. God's mercy was there for you before you made the mistakes etc. It is time for you to shake off the shame and guilt. This is a new day.

Don't let negative events - a failure, an addiction, a divorce, a bankruptcy - become your identity. That is what you did; it's not who you are. That is what happened to you; it's not your identity. Remind yourself: "I am who God says I am. I am approved, I am accepted, I am valuable, and I am a masterpiece." You are a child of the Most High God!

2 Corinthians 10:4 "The weapons we fight with are not the weapons of the world. On the contrary, they have divine power to demolish strongholds."
