

There is always a lot of uncertainty, panic and fear in the world. Think of the feelings people still have when someone mentions “Coronavirus”. But that virus hasn’t stopped your destiny. Challenges like that come against you, but God says: “It shall be well with you.” You had a setback in your finances. Your business is struggling. You don’t know how you are going to make it. God is your Provider. He even feeds the birds of the air. He knows how to take care of you. New opportunities are going to come looking for you.

Let this phrase sink down in your soul and spirit: “It shall be well with me.” God is going to work out whatever you are facing. He is fully in control. It is just a matter of time before you make it through. Live from a place of peace, a place of trust. Believe that the evil forces that are trying to stop you are being broken. Things are changing in your favour. All will be well with you.

Isaiah 3:10 “Say to the righteous that it shall be well with them...”
