

Jesus says to overcome evil with good and to even bless our enemies, but He also says to not cast your pearls among swine. By “your pearls”, He meant to not keep trying to convince those who refuse to believe the Gospel, but it also includes you. Some people won’t value the calling on your life, the gifts and talents God has given you, or your anointing. They will reject and trample over the Gospel and who God made you to be, and they will not respect what you have to offer.

Your time is too valuable to waste it with people who discount your pearls. Don’t spend time with people who try to lessen you, and who make you feel like you have to prove to them who you are. You don’t need their approval; you have Almighty God’s approval. He created you in His own image. He calls you a masterpiece. Rather spend time with people who inspire you to go further and rise higher, who bring out the best in you, and who cause your pearls to shine.

Matthew 7:6 “Don’t waste what is holy on people who are unholy. Don’t throw your pearls to pigs! They will trample the pearls, then turn and attack you.”
