

In English grammar, the superlative form of an adjective indicates the ultimate. This is found in God's name Almighty (Hebrew El Shaddai). It was the name by which God revealed Himself to the patriarchs before revealing His personal name, Yahweh, to Moses. (Exodus 6:3) If we say God is "Almighty", it means He is the mightiest of all. It means there are none more powerful, none who can stand against Him. The New Testament version of almighty is pantokrator - from pas (all) and krateo (to be strong, rule). (2 Corinthians 6: 18) Almighty (pantokrator) is found eight times in Revelation, the book that depicts God's ultimate victory over Satan and his demons.

When you feel overpowered by life's circumstances, remember that God is mightier than all. He is greater than the sum of all He created! You can do all things through Him who gives you strength. (Philippians 4:13)

Revelation 12:9 "So the great dragon was cast out, that serpent of old, called the Devil and Satan, who deceives the whole world; he was cast to the Earth, and his angels were cast out with him."
