

In the Scripture, why did David's father leave him out in the shepherds' fields when Samuel came to anoint one of his sons to be the next king? Why did he look down on David as not good enough, and disrespect him as unworthy? Why was David's oldest brother jealous of him, and why did he belittle David and try to hold him back? David wasn't intimidating or a threat to him. Remember, the enemy can see things in you that you may not see. The enemy knew David had seeds of greatness in him. He knew David was a giant killer. That is why he came against David so strongly to try and keep him from his destiny.

There may be obstacles trying to stop you now. You may wonder why it is happening. It is because there is greatness in you. The enemy wouldn't come against you if you weren't a threat. Now do your part and stay in faith. In this fight for your future, it is not just up to you. God is fighting for you, and therefore you will triumph!

Micah 5:9 "With your arms raised in triumph over your foes, your enemies will be no more!"
